I wonder ...
    where I wander
I explore ...
    what I encounter
I realize ...
    why I roam
I ask ... who I am.

I am curious
    ... I crawl
I am wary
    ... I walk
I am restless
    ... I run
I am fearful
    ... I fly.

I journey ...

My venture is an unacquainted one ...
unfamiliar forms
that are familiar ...
strangers who are friends ...
impossible problems
with their simple solutions.
Mine is the vagabond life ...
riding the rails and trusting the future to fate.

I sing of my travels past and pray that my journey continue.
I question ...
I search ...
I travel ...

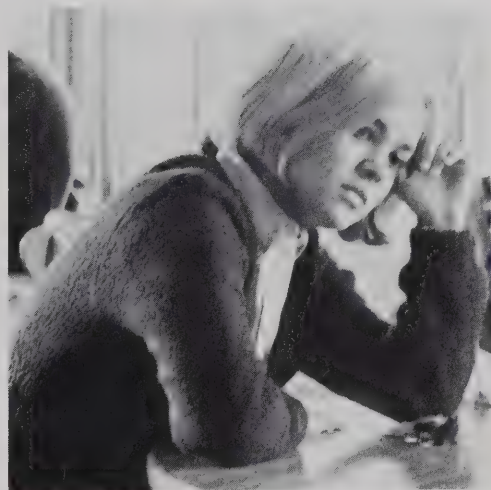

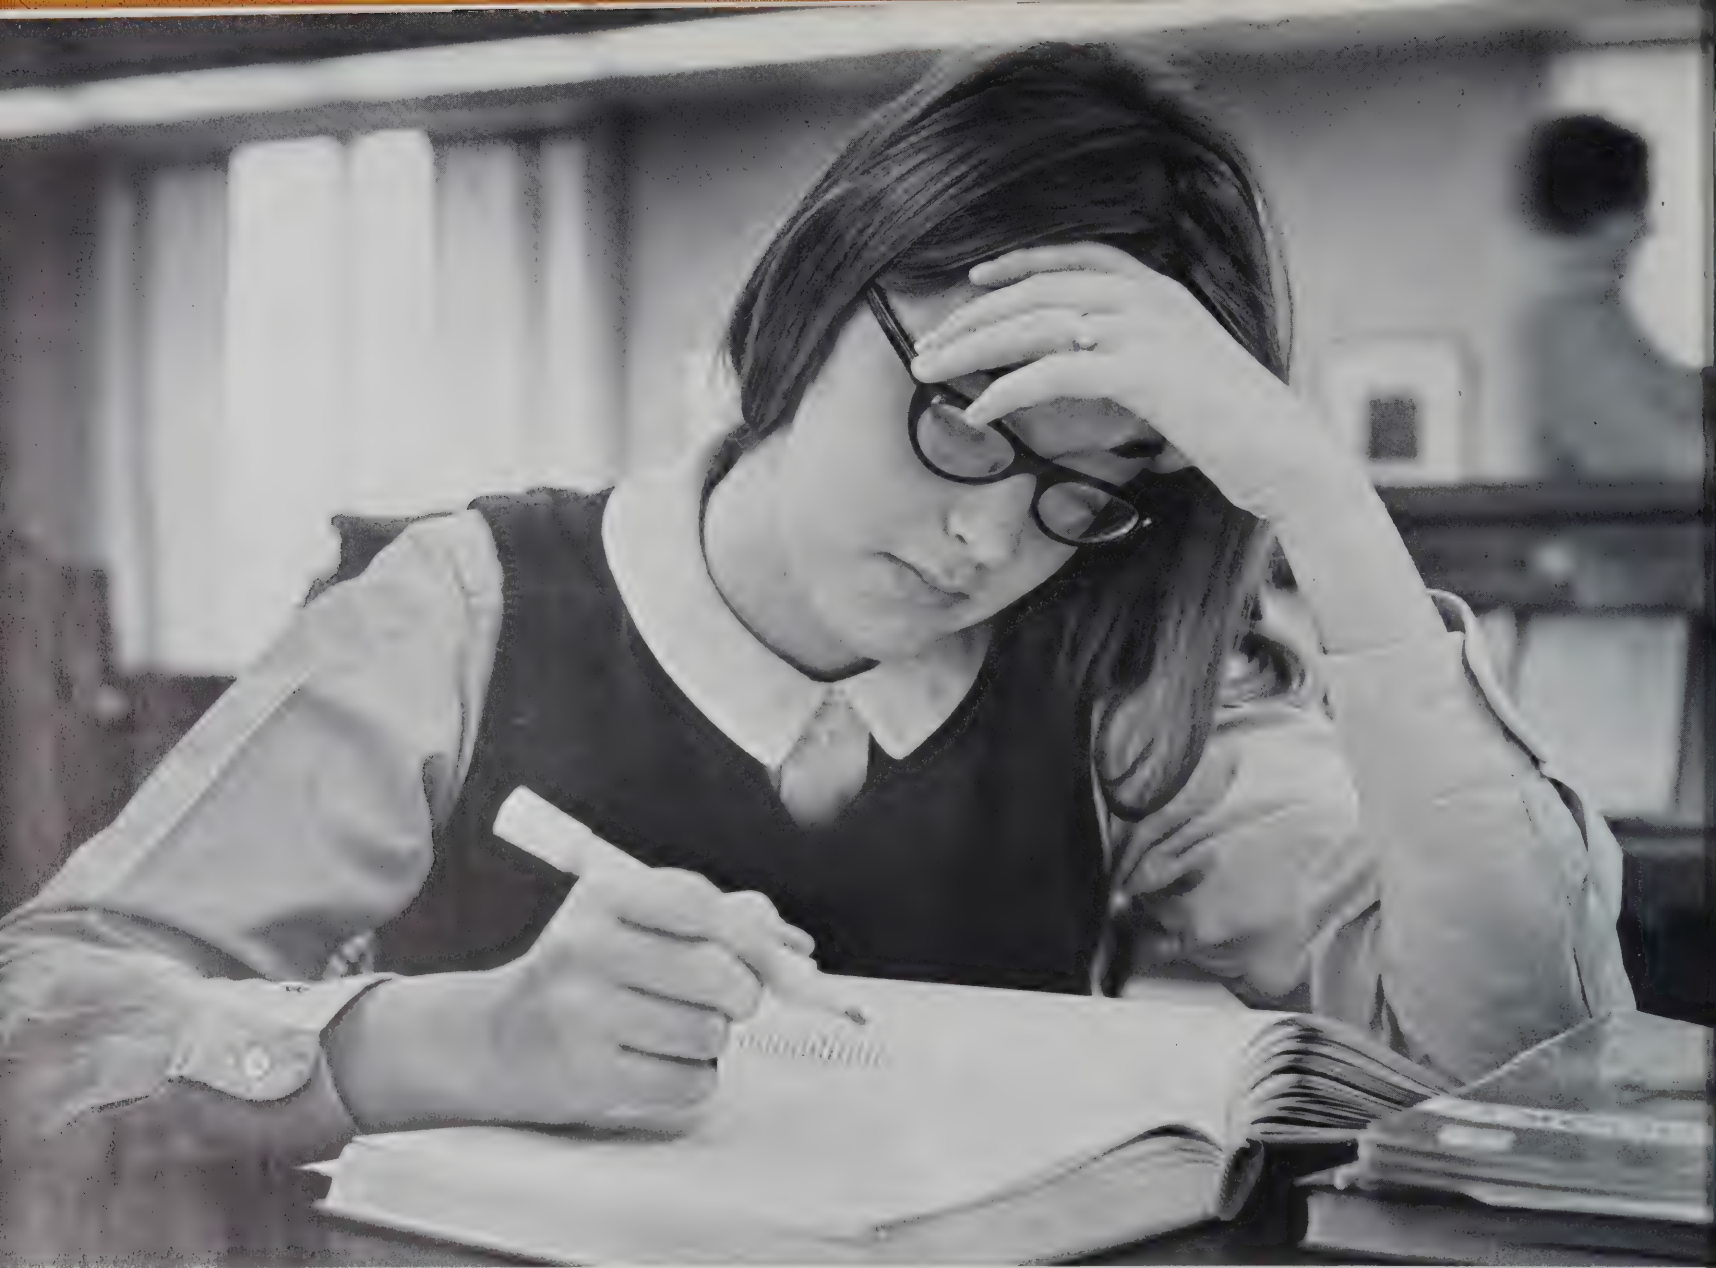

A permanent record of my journey ...
faces I have met ... friendships
that are treasured souvenirs ...
established routes to be travelled again and again.

... youngsters? No, not really.
Fellow passengers, for they travel with me. Our destination?
Men and Women.
We ride on the rails of curiosity.
We are detoured only by the direction of discovery.

A man and a woman ...
a journey unto themselves.

no one becomes someone becomes everyone

People ...

my testimony to life.

Human ties on the tracks
of mankind ...

an adventure in existence,
sparked by life itself.

Life's colorful itinerary:
people and places

In my pursuit of knowledge
the signpost reads
"experience"

I have come a long,
long way.

Delta Thetalon

The Annual Delta Thetalon, sponsored by Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity, put a little spring in fall's step. Beauty, ranging from the Miss Venus Contest to the Best Dressed (?) Guy, and good, clean fun like the Pie Eating Contest and Mud Bowl classic livened the campus and set the stage for the autumn agenda.

Glenn Yarbrough

A kaleidoscope of big-name talent made Adrian its whistle stop this year. In October SACC introduced the controversial journalist Drew Pearson. The Detroit sound of Rodney Knight and his Soul Sextet made the Tau Kappa Epsilon Red Carnation Ball an undoubted success, and the flourish of flamenco guitars brought with it Jose Greco and his Spanish Ballet. SACC closed the year with standing ovations for the versatile Glenn Yarbrough, steering the year to a successful close on the entertainment road.

Traveling through the stage door, the spotlight illuminates the drama and comedy of the stage. The national honorary theatre fraternity, Theta Alpha Phi, along with students from theatre classes and a guest actor played talented parts in an effort to prove to Adrian that the "play is indeed the thing."

"Mr. Scrooge."

"Mr. Scrooge."

The new women's dorm went "up" for occupancy, and the  $\Sigma$ AE house went up too in flames. An early morning blaze found the brothers shivering in the February cold, the house completely gutted.

The women's dorm unlocked tradition with the new policy for women 21 and over to come and go as they please, provided they sign out a key—a step toward a very "liberal" arts curriculum.

Winter Carnival

The snow season ... and the campus becomes a winter wonderland, without the benefit of the "fluffy stuff," to host the 1969 Winter Carnival. An interesting cross section of Adrian student talent was evident. Nine lovely ladies, eight chaps a-chugging, seven eager eaters, six tall tale tellers, and four vociferous Vogues made the three days of Winter Carnival a time to remember.

MIAA THIRD

Broken legs, pulled muscles and other minor injuries forced the Adrian College runners out of their previous first place position in MIAA competition.

With some first place harriers out, including co-captains Zane and Swihart, the team maintained a respectable third place position.

Basketball Cheerleaders

An essential part of any sport is morale, and a high morale is what the Adrian College cheerleaders had the task of maintaining in the crowd as well as in the team. As cheers echoed across basketball courts and football fields, the cheerleaders proved that their efforts had gone into accomplishing this task.

Bottom: The football cheerleaders spurred on many exciting pep rallies from the Mound on front campus to stir up enthusiasm in the Adrian College students before the big games.

A spark came into the Adrian College cagers late in the season. The team won their last two home games with outstanding playing. The Bulldogs had several setbacks in the earlier part of the season with the ineligibility and transfer of some important players. Coach Arbaugh moved freshmen to the varsity team to retaliate these setbacks. This move will give the freshmen a better understanding of the techniques of college basketball and a more promising season next year.

Grapplers Win MIAA Championship

The first official MIAA championship fell into the hands of Adrian College after their unofficial championship last year. The title was easily won as the team, under Coach Paul MacDonald, captured seven first place positions in the league wrestling tournament. The team ended the season with a 14-3 record.

MIAA CHAMPIONS

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER: DOUG MOSS

TEAM RECORD: Won 5, Lost 4

SCHOOL RECORD HOLDERS: Steve Bruns, pole vault; Joe Minneci, long jump; Doug Moss, hurdles; Roger Kingsbery, mile run.

Few individuals have ever accomplished as much in track at Adrian as Doug Moss. He won the MIAA 120-high hurdles four times in a row; won 43 of 46 hurdles matches while at Adrian; lost only one MIAA match, that to teammate Ron Labadie this year. His record may stand for some time at Adrian, and his time would have been good enough to finish "in the money" at this year's Big Ten track meet.

Swimming

This will be remembered as the first year for swimming as a varsity sport at Adrian. The team did very well in an abbreviated three game schedule, and next year can be expected to give a good account of themselves in a full season's schedule.

Most Valuable Swimmer:
Rob Flewelling

Spring Sports Awards

OUTSTANDING SENIOR ATHLETE: President Dawson and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Swihart with Tom Swihart, named the top senior athlete.

Tennis

This year's edition of varsity tennis was characterized by youth. The squad was made up of one junior, four sophomores and six freshmen.

Sophomore Rick Meyer was named Most Valuable Player.

The doubles team of Rick Meyer and Dave McPike won the consolation round in number one doubles at the MIAA Field Day.

The ADRIAN COLLEGE SINGERS worked hard to provide fine singing programs throughout the year. This year the Singers went to Detroit, Cleveland, and Pittsburgh. They are composed of members of the choir.

All members of the CHOIR have one thing in common, the enjoyment of music and singing. These students have the incentive to explore and study various forms of choral literature. Besides providing music for the weekly chapel programs, they also sing at campus and community functions.

Rick Snyder, first semester editor, and Tom Lewis (r.) second semester editor, check proof on one of the numerous WORLD deadlines. Few persons really thoroughly understand the pressure of deadlines and the problems in representing an entire campus's thoughts in one newspaper.

Marty Stewart, working on layout and page makeup.

Sports Editor Lyle Camron and staffer Roger Kingsbery.

Graduation...this special, looked-forward-to-day, marks the end of an era for you. Yet, it's also the commencement of new, often unknown horizons. For some, it means going on to higher educational levels, for others, the time to seek employment. As one of the largest electric and gas utilities in the United States, Consumers Power Company offers a wide variety of job opportunities. We are always looking for qualified personnel...the well-known "voice with a smile" to give our customers help and information—bright, outgoing, responsible persons to explain our many services—clerks and typists—outdoor jobs, planning and installing gas and electric service, reading meters, driving trucks—etc.

Care to join us? If you do, please get in touch with our Division office in your city.
